INTERNATIONAL CRYOEM SYMPOSIUM IN RIO

The Campus count with internal buses that transports users between different buildings in the campus. To get to CCS take the internal buses and go down in front of the Hospital Clementino Fraga Filho that is in the front of the entrance A of CCS.

*On November 2 and 3, only Entrance A of CCS is open.

* For those unfamiliar with Rio de Janeiro, we recommend taking a taxi or UBER.

By car or driver app

Use Google Maps or Waze with the following address:

Rua César Pernetta, 1677. Cidade Universitária – UFRJ. Rio de Janeiro

That is the address of the parking of Instituto de Biofísica Carlos Chagas Filho. People that come with car can park freely. People that come with driver can go down at the parking lot and enter the entrance of the Institute.

Having lunch during ICEMS

On November 1, all restaurants in CCS will be working normally. Attendees of ICEMS can use these restaurants to have lunch. People can also bring your own food, warm, and eat it at the CCS food court. Delivery services also operates at the Campus.

On November 2 and 3, the restaurants inside CCS will be closed due to the holiday. In these days, attendees of ICEMS have as options: to have lunch in the restaurants outside the building (in front of the entrance A); to bring your food, warm and eat it at the CCS food court; to use delivery services to ask for food; to go to restaurants outside the Campus (we will be happy to give some tips).

* Graduate and post-Graduate students, post-docs and employees of UFRJ can also have lunch at the University Restaurant.
